Universally Hated, the Newspaper Join With Those of the Whole World In a Chorus of Execution.

LONDON, Sept. 11.—With the excep-tion of the Jesuit organs in Rome and the anti-Semite papers, the press of the whole world is ringing with execration over the Drevfus decision. Even the Russian press joins in the chorus, atthough perhaps the Jews are nowhere more hated than in Russia. The judges are everywhere described as criminals and gloomy speculations are indulged as to what future is in store for France. The 'German press is especially in-dignant, The National Zeitung remark-ing that 'even the worst enemy of France could not have wished what has happened. Papers of all nationalities fall in with the idea of boycotting the exhibition.

It would be difficult to describe adequately the indignation the verdict has evoked everywhere in England. The excitement in the Jewish quarters of London is only natural. Special pray-ers were offered throughout Saturday in all the synagogues on behalf of Drey-fus, and, as soon as the verdict was known, Jews and Jewesses were seen at every street corner expressing execrations and many sobbing bitterly.

At the music halis the news was greeted with groans and hisses. In the French quarter of London there was much excitement, accompanied by some street fighting.

In almost all the places of public worship yesterday pulpit references were made to the verdict. Canon Scott-Holland, at St. Paul's cathedral, said: "A nation is on trial. France stands at the judgment bar. Rev. Hugh Price Hughes, the well known Wesleyan divine, preaching at St. James' hall, said: "Five unhappy judges have already taken their places, in the judgment of the human race, beside Judas, Pilate, Judge Jeffries and other creatures. They have sentenced their victim to a decade of imprisonment, but they have decreed themselves forever to the scorn, derision and execration of the human race. Unless France shakes off this infamy, she will be left without an ally or a friend.' Rev. Arthur Robins, chaplain-in-or Philadelphia Show Will Open Next Thursday With Fitting Ceremonies. Buildings Cost Over $1,000,000.

PHILADELPHIA, Sept. 11.-The National Export exposition will be opened at noon on Thursday next and remain open, Sundays excepted, until Nov. 20. The superb buildings have been completed at a cost of more than $1,000,000. The opening ceremonies on Thursday which are to be held in the chief struc ture of the exposition, will be attended with much solemnity and interest. The governor of the state, mayor of the city and representatives of the government at Washington and of many of the zation, the United States Marine band, together with 196 trained singers, under the leadership of Prof. Rosewig, are preparing a musical program which will extend through a large part of the day. As at present arranged, President Widener of the exposition association, will turn over the exposition to Gov-ernor Stone, who is in turn to deliver it into the custody of the mayor of the thus establishing it upon the board basis of city, state and national endorse ment. The addresses and ceremonies of the day, which will be participated in by Archbishop Ryan of this Catholic diocese, and other prominent clergy-men, will be of the most interesting character. The public will find upon the opening of the exhibition on Thursday a presen tation of American trade movements and mechanical and art enterprises of a
